THE PROPERTY

Nestled within the boundary of Hendre Lake Country Park in the charming area of St. Mellons, Cardiff, this remarkable property is a true gem waiting to be discovered. Boasting an impressive 4,569 square feet, this detached period house is steeped in history, dating all the way back to 1590. Pill Du Farm is the longest longhouse in Wales! As you step inside, you are greeted by not just a house, but a piece of Welsh history. With five reception rooms, seven bedrooms, and four bathrooms, there is an abundance of space for all your needs. The property exudes charm and character at every turn, with its Elizabethan Welsh long house architecture adding a unique touch to the ambiance.

Situated on a generous 0.61-acre plot, the property offers ample outdoor space for relaxation and entertainment. Whether you are looking to host gatherings or simply enjoy some peace and quiet in the outdoors, this property provides the perfect setting. This property offers further potential to become two dwellings given the addition of the Annex. (ask for further details) For those who appreciate history, character, and a touch of grandeur, this property is sure to captivate your heart. Don't miss the opportunity to own a piece of Welsh heritage and make this extraordinary residence your own.
